We note with profound sadness the untimely passing of Justice Graham Hill (1938–2005) on 24 August 2005. An outstanding student (First Class Honours and University Medal from University of Sydney), barrister, academic, and Judge of the Federal Court of Australia, Justice Graham Hill was widely regarded as one of the foremost tax scholars in Australasia. He was a member of the eJournal of Tax Research's Editorial Board and officially launched the eJournal on 10 September 2003.
