

includes Commonwealth, NSW and ACT laws with which UNSW must comply, including regulations and by-laws made under the (NSW).

state the behaviour necessary to meet the core values and obligations of the University. Council approves codes and they are university-wide document.

A code may:

- state principles (objectives that govern and guide conduct and decision-making)
- state university-wide requirements, and
- contain