Progression Rules

- Students must start with either PSYC5001 or PSYC5002 and must complete both of these courses before continuing to PSYC5003, then to PSYC5004.
- The four introductory courses (PSYC5001 – PSYC5004) have to be completed before proceeding to the advanced units (PSYC5005 – PSYC5010).
- The advanced courses PSYC5005 to PSYC5009 can be completed in any order that suits student's individual pattern of study.
- PSYC5010 must be completed as the final course in the program.
- Students who have completed course/s equivalent to PSYC5001 and/or PSYC5002 as part of prior degree within 7 years prior to program commencement, may apply for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) in the online application. RPL is also known as "credit transfer" or "advanced standing".
- Maximum enrolment in one course per hexamester.
- Maximum time to complete the program is 5 years.
- hexamester and to ensure that they are following the progression rules and are on track to complete the program (see Enrolment Guide and program's Key Dates).
- Typical progression plans are based on the assumption of full enrolment in all available hexamesters without any credit transfer and program leave. If students are granted credit transfer and/or have applied for program leave, students will need to adjust their progression plan accordingly.
